

RESEARCH PUBLICATION POLICY

1 Research Publication Policy has been informed by the Office for Students Sector-Recognized Standards and the General Ongoing Conditions of Registration and has regard to the UK Quality Code for Higher Education. These definitive reference points for all English higher education institutions set out how academic standards are established and maintained and how excellence in the quality of learning opportunities is assured.

provides a suite of policies designed to safeguard the academic standards of The University of Law and to assure the quality of learning opportunities offered; this policy should therefore be read in conjunction with other relevant policies within the code.

Introduction

2 The University of Law recognises publication of research or project work undertaken during a programme of study, or as an academic scholarly activity, is an integral element to dissemination of knowledge to the global community.

2.1 The University of Law is cognisant of the increased requirement of UK higher

5 Members of University staff who wish to publish their research should ensure that they adhere to relevant HR policies and processes, including the Outside Working Policy.

6 If an allegation of research misconduct is alleged, as defined in paragraph 8 and 9 of Q3.10 Research Integrity Policy,

10 University support

10.1 All authors (students and staff) are provided with expert advice and guidance

14 Recording of published work

14.1 All published outputs will be recorded in The University of Law Research & Knowledge Exchange Repository; this information will be the official record of the 14.2 This archive will be populated with metadata and full text associated with published peer-reviewed journal articles, book chapters, and conference papers. The Responsibility for the provision

15

Appendix A – Application Flowchart

